Offer

Multimedia services

In our own professional recording studio, we manage different tasks, such as voice-over and subtitling, in different languages: Iberian languages (Spanish, Catalan, Basque, Galician), all European languages (including Nordic and Eastern Europe languages) Asia Pacific languages (Chinese, Japanese and Korean). Having our own recording studio allows us to offer more flexibility and reduced prices to our customers. Please see <http://mss.es/smartbook/> for a brief description of our multimedia services.

e-Learning services

We offer a global solution for your training materials, from the content creation and virtualization to the later internationalization in several languages. We create the most attractive learning experiences by using the latest authoring tools available in the market (Captivate, Articulate, Lectora...), multimedia tools (Flash, Prezzi, video and audio editing tools...), engineering, etc. Our customers use our unique validation platform in order to streamline the translation validation process: no more back and forth emails.
