Description

IRIs View is a company that develops mobile solutions supporting management and decision-making.

Our slogan is 'Manage the company from your mobile' and that is, allowing to know all operations, activity and status of the company from the mobile anytime, anywhere and automating the calculation of the indicators.

We are specialized in developing strategic management tools as part of the Business Intelligence providing new methodologies to achieve business objectives.

Since 2006 we have developed different products that facilitate the connection to the computer system offering an immediate status of the company.

It is the only solution that allow to define the business model, design the strategy maps and develop the indicators to tracked them from the Mobile
