Description

SOFI Groupe is an electronic After Sales Service provider. Based in the south of France, it is an independent company having an important unit production with more than 6000 m².

Since we began telephone repair operations in 1986, we assist our many partners throughout the life cycle of their electronic products. SOFI Groupe develops logistics and technology solutions focused on the needs and expectations of its customers.

The company provides support to manufacturers and distributors around its three core businesses:

- Individualised Repair Service
- Batch Repair for the revaluation of swapped product stock (Refurbish)
- Rework (hardware, software or customization operations).

SOFI Groupe is working on your side, analyzing your return flows and the continuous improvement of your products.
