Description

Lextech helps sales, operations, and IT teams optimize workflows by identifying, designing, and developing suites of custom mobile apps. Coming up with app ideas is easy, but picking the right apps is hard. We approach mobile in a way that supports a line of business' overall strategy, resulting in extraordinary returns like the real client examples below. 300% increase in sales 12 hour process reduced to 4 hours 280% return on investment in 5 months Cut sales process from 3 hours to 1 hour Recovered $1 million of lost revenue from pricing errors per week #1 top grossing app on the App Store for 14 weeks Since 2001, Lextech has delivered technology solutions that result in high returns and empower businesses to build strong internal processes. Our portfolio of mobile apps spans across many industries and platforms, tapping into the true power of mobile by integrating with everything from a grain silo to a missile launcher.
