Wyconn GmbH

Description

Wyconn products are based on 10 years of work in the field supporting major European and international enterprises in manufacturing, pharma, R&D, retail, telecom, and other industries through our sister company, anovis (www.anovis.com), based in Vienna.

Our experience implementing and maintaining large-scale M2M/IoT products led us to undertake an intensive R&D effort that focused on

- Solid hardware Engineering
- Many different connectivity options, including dual SIMs to Support
- Remote lights-out Troubleshooting
- Cloud-based provisioning and management to dramatically lower the costs to install, provision, and maintain
- An application platform that enables enterprises, integrators, and third-parties to write apps that can be deployed via the cloud to provide new capabilities
