Description

Enterprise Europe Brussels supports entrepreneurship, innovation and internationalization in Europe and beyond. The services provided include :

Find international partners

Identify technology needs and/or technology potential in our online database of over 13 000 technology offers and requests and find out how you can participate in technology transfer partnerships with other European organisations.

Stay up-to-date with the latest technology profiles

Receive e-alerts of the latest technologically innovative offers and requests matching your needs from Europe and beyond by registering to our online service.

Promote your own innovation in European Markets

Publish your technology profile, which will be disseminated and promoted by your local EEN adviser towards the 600 partner organisations of the Network.

Benefit from innovation management coaching & trainings

Enterprise Europe Brussels offers innovation consulting services through an AT Kearney tool called IMP³rove. This service is free of charge; beneficiaries are selected according to criteria such as the company size, the innovation capabilities or the growth potential.
