Description

Barcelona Media is an industry-driven R&D center located in the heart of 22@, Barcelona's innovation district. Since its foundation in 2001, Barcelona Media has been an international technology partner that develops multimedia technologies and solutions through applied research and tailor-made services. Our main market is the media sector, although we also work for other fields such as security, mobility, culture, tourism and training. Our specific fields of knowledge are Audio, Image, Perception and Cognition and Social Media. We have long-term clients such as Yahoo! Labs and we hold our own branch in Brazil, from which we serve the Latin-American market.
