Description

Ledmotive is a high-tech company in the growing market of intelligent LED lighting. Ledmotive's patented technology is able to create, record, process, playback and share any light without boundaries. Our lights are connected to the Internet of Things and can perfectly reproduce the properties of visible light, in a similar way an MP3 player can reproduce the properties of sound. Moreover, our technology along with its mobile application defines a light that is adjustable, versatile, dynamic, sustainable, and constitutes the link between high quality LED lighting and the digital word.
